Fluency

Test takers at your level are typically able to produce intelligible speech, even though they regularly mispronounce certain unfamiliar words, and pausing for planning and repair is evident. Stress, intonation and rhythm may be influenced by their native language, but the message can still be conveyed.

Language

Test takers at your level have a good range of vocabulary related to familiar, everyday topics. They can express themselves on these familiar subjects using basic grammatical structures. As topics become more unfamiliar and/or more complex, errors are more common and cause listener effort.
